

Improvements to ISO New England Inc.'s Market Design to Better Address Regional Fuel Security Concerns

Staff-Led Public Meeting

Docket No. EL18-182-000

Monday, July 15, 2019

10:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Agenda

On July 2, 2018, the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (Commission) directed ISO New England Inc. (ISO-NE) to submit permanent revisions to the ISO-NE Transmission, Markets and Services Tariff (Tariff) reflecting improvements to its market design to better address regional fuel security concerns.<sup>1</sup> The revisions are due on October 15, 2019.<sup>2</sup> On April 22, 2019, ISO-NE, New England States Committee on Electricity (NESCOE), and New England Power Pool (NEPOOL) Participants Committee jointly requested a public meeting to share with Commission staff, without violating the Commission's regulations prohibiting ex parte communications,<sup>3</sup> information about efforts to develop these proposed Tariff revisions. In response to that request, Commission staff is convening this public meeting.
