

FERC

insight

Commission Takes Final Action On Transmission Siting Rule

FERC took final action on Order No. 1977, the rule implementing its limited authority over siting electricity transmission lines, by requiring applicants seeking rights of way on Tribal lands for their projects to include their proposals in their Tribal engagement plans.

News Release

Tribal Relations

Debbie-Anne Reese Named Secretary of FERC

FERC Chairman Willie Phillips has named Debbie-Anne Reese Secretary of the Commission. Reese has served as Acting Secretary since January 2024, and prior to that had served as Deputy Secretary of the Commission since May 2021.

News Release

FERC Acts on Order 2023 Compliance Orders

At the October Open Meeting, the Commission voted on five compliance orders on the requirements of Order Nos. 2023 and 2023-A. Order 2023 established rules for electric transmission providers to use to integrate new generating facilities into the existing transmission system.

Agenda: TechCon on Generator Co-Location

The notice provides details on speakers and topics for the November 1, 2024, Commissioner-Led event at FERC headquarters.

2025 Commission Meeting Schedule

FERC announced the dates for its open meetings in 2025. The meetings take place on the third Thursday of every month, except August, unless otherwise indicated in the announcement.

FERC Events

- October 28, 2024 | Consultation with Federally Recognized Tribes on Whether to Conduct a Rulemaking to Revise the pro forma Large Generator Interconnection Procedure
- November 1, 2024 | Commissioner-Led Technical Conference Regarding Large Loads Co-Located at Generating Facilities
- November 4, 2024 | Consultation with Federally Recognized Tribes on Whether to Conduct a Rulemaking to Revise the pro forma Large Generator Interconnection Procedure
- November 21, 2024 | Commission Meeting

Decisions and Notices

